

San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District

Incentives/Opportunities and Partnerships

February 12, 2015

Air Quality in the Valley

- 80% of NOx inventory in the Valley attributed to mobile sources
 - Topography/Geography
 - Climate
 - Major transportation corridors
- High Poverty & Unemployment Rates/Disadvantaged Communities
- Broad, multifaceted portfolio of innovative strategies to address impact of mobile sources

Incentive Strategies

- District has operated incentive programs since 1992
- More than $1.2 billion invested
 - combined public/private investment
- Over 116,000 tons of lifetime emission reductions
- Lauded for efficiency and effectiveness
- Currently operate broad range of innovative programs, including programs on behalf of other districts and state

Current Programs

- Heavy-Duty On-Road Programs:
 - Proposition 1B
 - Carl Moyer Voucher Incentive Program
 - Truck Voucher Program
 - HVIP Plus-Up
 - School Bus Replacement/retrofit
- Leading statewide effort to ensure small fleets have access to much needed incentive funding

Current Programs (cont'.)

- Heavy Duty Off-Road Programs:
 - Ag pump engine replacement and electrification
 - Agricultural equipment replacement
 - Locomotives
- Light-Duty Programs:
 - Drive Clean! Rebate Program
 - Tune-In & Tune-Up Program
 - REMOVE Program
 - EV Readiness Planning

Current Programs (cont'.)

- Community Programs:
 - Burn Cleaner Rebate Program
 - Clean Green Yard Machine Program
- Public Benefit Grants Program:
 - Light-Duty Vehicles
 - Alternative Fuel Infrastructure
 - Enhanced Transportation Strategies
- Technology Advancement Program

Programs Under Development

- Electric Vehicle Charging Infrastructure
 - Public buildings (government buildings, libraries, etc.)
 - Workplace/public charging (offices, shopping centers, etc.)
- Enhanced Fleet Modernization Program
 - Includes EFMP Plus-Up

Your Valley Partners

- Advocacy and support for funding of projects/programs in the Valley
- Assist with:
 - Project proposals/development
 - Implementation
 - Technical analysis

We are here to help!

Valley Air District

Todd DeYoung

Incentives Program Manager

Todd.DeYoung@valleyair.org

www.valleyair.org

(559) 230-5816